

We write in response to the Commission's letter dated June 7, 2011. You note that the Committee did not disclose the Congressional district in which the candidate will run. However, the State of Washington is now engaged in the decennial redistricting process and has not enacted Congressional district boundaries for the 2012 general election. Until the redistricting process is completed, the candidate cannot know in which district he will run. When the process is completed, and the candidate knows the district in which he will run, the Committee will amend its Statement of Organization to indicate that district. See 11 C.F.R. 102.2(a)(2). If you have any questions, please contact the Committee.
